

Thames North Synod Personalia

Paper A
22 October
2022

NEWS OF MINISTERS

MOVES INTO THAMES NORTH SYNOD

Revd JunSoo Park has been called to Trinity Knebworth, Ashwell and Walkern & Sandon URC. A date for his induction is yet to be set.

Revd Brian Busckill was inducted on 18 September 2022 to Chadwell Heath; Nelmes (Hornchurch) and Trinity (Upminster).

Revd Naison Hove will be inducted in November as minister of High Cross and Lay Preacher Support.

Revd Paul Stein will be inducted to Adeyfield Free Church and St George's Hemel Hempstead on 12th November 2022.

Revd Leslie Noon (Methodist) was welcomed to Howard Memorial Church, Cardington Bedford in August 2022.

Revd Paul Weary (Methodist) was welcomed on 1 September 2022 as the Enfield Circuit Superintendent and has oversight of Trinity URC/Methodist, Enfield.

Revd David Jebb (Methodist) was welcomed on 2 September 2022 as St Albans and Welwyn Circuit Superintendent and has oversight of Radlett United Free Church.

Margaret Chipandambira was welcomed as deacon to Colnbrook and Poyle United Church on Thursday 3rd September.

MOVES OUT OF THAMES NORTH SYNOD

Revd Dan Haylett (Methodist) left Trinity Church Enfield in August 2022 to take up a new ministry in Devon.

Revd Andrew Hollins (Methodist) left Howard Memorial Church, Cardington Bedford in August 2022 to take up a new ministry in Lincolnshire.

Revd Claude Halm (Baptist) left Seven Kings Church (URC/Baptist), Ilford to become pastor of Aldersbrook Baptist Church, Wanstead

Revd Andrew Prout (Methodist) left Radlett United Free Church in July 2022.

RETIREMENTS

Revd Francis Ackroyd – finally retired!

Revd Margaret Dudley (Methodist) retired from Colnbrook and Poyle United Church in August 2022.

James Fields & Colleen Fraser, October 2022